What is CG ?

Definition

“Corporate Governance: CG” is the managerial principle for a company to balance the interests of stakeholders, enhance efficiency, transparency and accountability of the company.

From this definition it can be seen that good corporate governance is a matter that involves everyone in the organization. Each person has a duty and responsibility to each other in the engagement in making enterprise progress, coupled with social and community care.

The advantages of

CG

1. Strengthen the Good Management system, Transparency and International standard.
2. Increase the competitiveness of the company, which will affect the confidence of investors, both inside and outside the country.
3. As a tool for performance measurement and monitoring.
4. Create a scope of responsibility for all stakeholders.

Anti-Fraud

Fraud - Evil conduct, bad behavior straightforward- cheating, deceit, fraudulent use subterfuge, or scamming to get what one wants to use the powers or the use of property that exists unlawfully to for ones advantage, family, friends, acquaintances or other benefits in which causes damage to others detriment.^[4]

Fraud may occur in a variety of ways. Mainly divided into 2 types as follows:

- 1) Corruption
- 2) Asset Misappropriation

Anti-Corruption

It is a policy of Thai Union Group Public Company Limited (hereafter referred as “the Company”), that will be consistent with anti-bribery laws of Thailand, to take a firm stand against any acts of corruption, in all of our business dealings at all levels. Hence, the Company has issued the Anti-Corruption Policy and Code of Conduct for Anti-Corruption, which details strict guidelines to prevent and/or deal with any corrupt activities. Further, the process of reviewing our policies and procedures are implemented on a periodic basis, in order to make sure our guidelines are up-to-date and responsive to new developments in the current business conducts as well as changing laws, rules and regulations to which the Company is subject, and to make sure that our integrity and ethical business conduct is upheld; and by which all board members, management and employees must abide. Board members, management and employees shall perform their duty in compliance with this policy and communicate the policy to external stakeholders for corruption-related risk prevention.

Corruption is defined as

A. Any behavior that violates one's terms of employment through an improper use of one's position as employee, representative, or other title acting for/on the behalf of the Company to gain a personal or other undue advantage; or,

B. Any act of bribing* government officials and extorting and soliciting a bribe from business partners or other parties with intent to induce a person or party to violate the laws or avoid complying with any regular legal or ethical conduct and rules and regulations that the Company promote

This includes Political Contributions refer to financial support or donation of items and/or participation in activities; or the Company's support for Employees to attend political events in its name in order to acquire business advantages. Except in case law, custom, local traditions to do.

Gifts, Hospitality, and Expenditures

- Board members, management and employees must not demand, accept, or offer any gift or hospitality, either in the form of money, gifts, goods and services to, from or for business partners, agents, creditors, third parties or the Company competitors if doing so can be perceived as bribery or as personal or undue advantage of business partners, agents, creditors, and third parties.
- Any offers or receipt of gifts and hospitality as per customs and traditions shall be conformance to the Company's rules and regulations. In other cases where the Company's rules and regulations cannot be applied, they must be proportionate, transparent and legitimate with no hidden agenda, as stated above.

Political Contributions

- The Company shall maintain a neutral stance in politics and, hence, does not make any political contribution in any forms whatsoever.
- Board members, management and employees must never make use of the Company's money, goods, and services for any political purposes, or use the Company's resources, such as personnel and facilities, for running a campaign or advertisement in this regard.

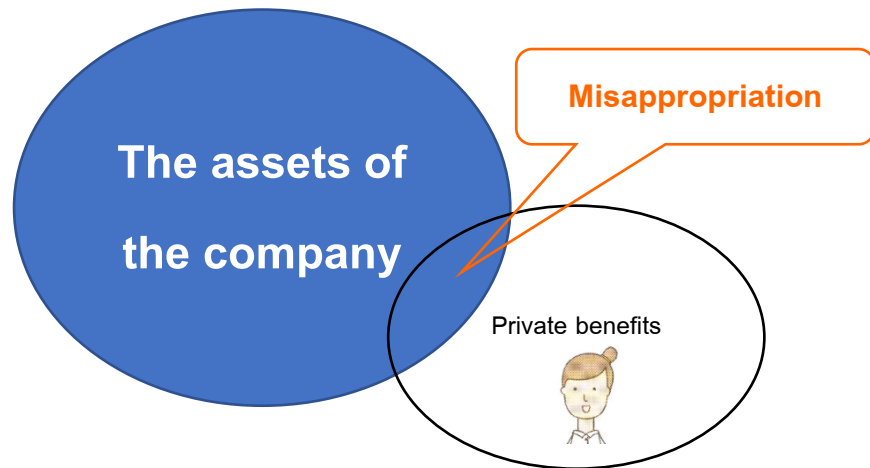

Asset Misappropriation

Misappropriation - To bring money, goods or other assets with which one has been entrusted by the company, including working hours to be used for personal or other undue advantage.

According to section 352 that anyone in possession of another's estate, which is owned by another user, or which is included with the misconduct or fraud by a third party who engage in misappropriation are liable. Fines include imprisonment not exceeding three years or a fine not exceeding six thousand baht or both.

Even the current misappropriation of the employers are in the criteria of the courts accepted method of resolution for the defendant (the employees) to the victim (the employer), but what is important is the violation of an employee will be a lifetime blacklist for the misconduct.
